

“Social purpose is one of our key values, OnBoard aligned perfectly with what we are about.”

“After having time to reflect, our team is working better together. Individuals in our team who hadn’t met each other face to face yet now feel a lot more confident picking up the phone for support and advice.”

“The skateboards being donated to Access Sport in Sheffield, which is local to our team really had an impact, specifically resonating with the people who had travelled down to London for the event.”

Sheffield’s ‘Every Child Matters Survey’ highlighted a need for low-cost activities and better equipment to support more physically active lifestyles. Access Sport intends to tackle this issue and ensure everyone has access to these facilities, they received 10 skateboards.
